Course Description

Medical emergencies can occur at anytime in the dental office. Preparation for such emergencies is extremely important. A team approach ensures that all members of the dental team are prepared to handle emergency situations effectively. Through lecture and emergency case review, participants will improve their recognition and understanding of medical emergencies in the dental office setting.

Presenter

R. John Brewer, NREMT-P

Mr. Brewer is a part-time paramedic with 30 plus years experience in EMS working as a career paramedic in an urban/suburban area just south of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Mr. Brewer has worked extensively with the dental community since 1998. He provides BLS, ACLS and PALS courses in addition to medical emergency courses for individual offices, dental societies, PSOMS, University of Pittsburgh School of Dental Medicine and UPMC Children's Hospital Dept. of Pediatric Dentistry.

Mr. Brewer has also in the past assisted in teaching Duquesne University's IV Sedation Course, as well as the IV sedation course sponsored by St. Lukes/Elizabeth GPR program. Mr. Brewer also assists with helping offices purchase and organize emergency equipment, and prepare for office evaluations. Mr. Brewer has lectured in several states on the topic of medical emergencies in the dental office. Mr. Brewer has also recently started working as a dental anesthesia assistant in several oral surgery and dental offices.
